

PLEASE DO NOT allow the use of cell phones on commercial air flights! I am in complete agreement with those who point out that cell phone use could aid terrorist opportunities. When I fly, I look forward to quite time to read, nap or talk quietly with my seatmate. Cell phone conversations are loud, invasive of my "hearing space" and nearly as offensive as cigarette smoke.